The image shows a technical drawing of a flat bar profile. It consists of a thick horizontal line representing the bar. To the left of the bar, the number '2' is written in a large, bold font. To the right of the bar, the number '10' is written in a large, bold font. A horizontal dimension line is drawn below the '10', with vertical tick marks at each end, indicating the width of the bar. A small vertical tick mark is also present below the '2', indicating the thickness of the bar.
